2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is known for his work for poor and down trodden people of his area. By his efforts a recruitment cum training center of ITBP has been established enabling employment to the youth of the area. He was instrumental in getting the rail link between Maharajganj to Mashrakh operational improving rail connectivity in his area. A rack point has also been established generating large scale employment among youths and down trodden. He was instrumental in getting NH-531 and 331 in his area to improve the inter-state connectivity. He always helped poor people and became most popular leader.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		The cases against him are trivial in nature. He has been implicated for political reasons and because he always raised his voice for the people in his constituency especially socially deprived people. He was also beaten mercilessly in Patna when he sat in Dharna. There was no candidate with such public work as compared to him in his reputation. The people of his constituency known that he fights for them as result of which he has been made accused in criminal cases. There was no choice for the parties then to field him as candidate in this election.
