Sub: Objectifying woman in a video clip shared by political party AAP.

Respected Madam,

This is to bring to your kind attention that a video clip objectifying women has been released by the Aam Aadmi Party, which is clearly humiliating, and has been released with an intent to insult Indian women.

BJP Mahila Morcha strongly condemns this video of the Aam Aadmi Party, put up on its official Twitter handle, in which it has depicted actress Smt Vidya Balan as the Chief Minister's chair, and shows Punjab's Congress Party politicians Shri Charanjit Singh Channi and Shri Navjot Singh Sidhu as lusting for the CM's chair.

This video exhibits the sick mindset and the misogynistic attitude of the Aam Aadmi Party and its leaders. This video, an act of perverted and depraved minds, has been released as part of the Aam Aadmi Party poll campaign for Punjab and is very much objectionable, goes to outrage the modesty and dignity of women and is an insult to womanhood.

On behalf of BJP Mahila Morcha, I request you to initiate legal action against Aam Aadmi Party for this misogynistic act. Your earliest intervention in this regard would be highly appreciated.

BJP Mahila Morcha also seeks an unconditional apology from the Aam Aadmi Party and urges its leadership to immediately take down this objectionable video, created and published to seek short-term political gains.

BJP Mahila Morcha also urges the Aam Aadmi Party to respect women and to shed its misogynistic attitudes forthwith. No wonder, with such a misogynistic mindset, Aam Aadmi Party government in Delhi does not have a women minister.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

(VANATHI SRINIVASAN)
